

K-LOVE radio serves my family and young people of this community by providing an alternative to commercial radio and their continuous selling of goods and information. There is no other radio station that can claim having a positive influence on people's lives and especially the lives of our young generation.